LOCAL FAVORITES

WAR SU GAI

This Chinese American dish may be renowned in Columbus and Detroit, Michigan, but according to restaurant owners Kenny and Steve Yee, this gravy-doused fried chicken got its start at Ho Toy Restaurant in Columbus, Ohio where their ancestors worked. It was created to introduce Chinese cuisine to the influx of factory workers to the area.

JOHNNY MARZETTI

According to Ohio History Central, this food trend was created in Columbus by Teresa Marzetti. The Marzettis were Italian immigrants who settled in Columbus and opened an Italian restaurant, later developing a line of dressings and other foods sold in grocery stores across the country.

DRAFTS

COLUMBUS BREWING IPA | 8
Pale orange with a balance malt presence and finishes with a combination of grapefruit, pine and tropical fruit notes

WOLF'S RIDGE 614 LAGER | 8.5
Midwest light lager, only 110 calories. Brewed to be clean and crisp but with more flavor and allure than a macro lager. Very lightly hopped with Huell melon hops to add a subtle melon/citrus note to the aroma.

OH, SURE - LAND-GRANT BREWING | 8
IPA with a blend of traditional and new world hop flavors. The hop flavors are well-balanced and change a bit from the aroma, flavor and finish. As the beer warms, a note of honeydew melon can be detected. Hopheads will enjoy this one

YUENGLING | 8
A balance of American six-row and two row barley malt with choice Cluster and Cascade hops gives each beer a distinctive flavor

STELLA ATROIS | 8
A classic Belgian lager, golden in color with a floral, hop aroma, well-balanced fruity malty sweetness, crisp hop bitterness and a soft dry finish. All natural ingredients give this beer a clean crisp palate.

GUINNESS DRAUGHT | 8.5
Unmistakably tasty from the first sip to the last. Creamy. Smooth.
