

Hybrid Meeting Offer

In times of modern working methods and digitalization, hybrid meetings have become indispensable. A combination of real and virtual meetings or congresses. Not only time and cost savings speak for this form, but also the fact that a wide range of participants can be easily integrated. Experts and guest speakers can be switched on flexibly and the live switching tool enables interactive sessions and active participation through screen sharing.

What you need: A Laptop with an App/software for a videoconference (zoom, Microsoft teams,..)
