Service Fees:

Charges incurred shall be applied to the RECEIVER of material, thus, applied to an individual guest room account/folio or Group Master Account, or charged to an individual credit card. These charges cover the cost of labor, processing, receiving, tracking, storing, and delivering. Note that additional storage fees may apply for packages received more than three days prior to the start of an event. The price for receiving will be based on pounds. Weights will be taken off the Fed-Ex, UPS, or DHL boxes. These packages do not need to be weighed at the hotel. On the rare occasions when packages are received from another source and do not include weight information, the packages will be weighed at the hotel or the weights will be estimated.
